Singing Valentines

The down economy must be having an effect on love this year. Our Singing Valentines quartet only netted 14 paying customers and a few freebies this year. We still are very grateful for the net of $360 to the chorus and appreciate Rich Crain (tenor), Pat Harrison (bari), Lance Jepson (bass) and Lee Smith (lead) for their dedication to linking love and barbershop quartet music. Each young lady received a red rose and box of candy along with flushed cheeks as they listened to the love-songs of yore. Guys, keep the fire going until next year.
